CLARKSVILLE WEEKLY CHRONICLE.

SPEAKER J. A. Manson, is a candidate for Congress.

IF the Rob Taylor boom continues to ron, the e wont be a Republican left in the State.

Ir is said that the Tennessee girls who are summering at the Northern watering places, are pronounced the angst beautiful of all the visitors.

THE Democratic majority in the last state election was 34,452. Bob Taylor's friends say that his majority will be 100,000. Let the good work go on.

THE gossips have fixed October fifth' as the day set apart for Miss Murfree's (George Egbert Craddock) marriage. We hope that Tennessee's gifted young authoress will improve upon the example of most literary people, and marry

THE principal features of difference between a state and national bank are that the former does not require a redemption fund, whereas a national bank is required to invest 12 per cent of its stock owned.

COMPLIMENTARY TO JUDGE LURTON

Official returns have been sent up to the Secretary of State from all the counfice. The vote in the recent state election is as follows:

Lurton, 157,644; Caldwell, 157,450; Folkes, 157,456; Turney, 156,198; Snodgrass, 156,122.

It will be seen from the above figures that Judge Lurton runs ahead of the ticket. This is a just compliment to a selendid lawyer and accomplished gentieman. Clarksville always takes the

The people everywhere are eager to hear the candidates, and it is predicted that they will attract old-time Polk and Jones cibwds.

THE CODE IN OHIO.

Col. Murat Halstead, Republican boss of Ohio, challenged Gen: John R. McClean to a duel. It seems that the Enquirer man got the 'better of the Commercial Gazette man in the war of words, and the latter wanted blood, but the seconds arranged everything so that the lives of both statesmen are spared. Think of it? A duel in Ohio. Has the boasted civilization of the North, come to this.
